

FIRST STEPS:

When planning your barbeque, there are a few things you may want to consider. Firstly, have a brainstorm about the kind of event you would like to have. Think who will be there, what will be happening, and the kind of vibe you are after. Here are some questions you might want to ask yourself:

- Who will be there? Is your BBQ open to anyone walking past, or will it be just your closest neighbours?
- What's the plan? Will you have music? Are there activities? Or will you keep it more low key?
- What will people eat? Will people bring a plate to share? Will there be vegetarian or halaal options?
- Are there blankets for people to sit on, or table and chairs?

It doesn't have to cost a lot to host an NDA event. Remember our 3 B's: Bargain, Borrow or Barter

GETTING ORGANISED:

- Let your neighbours know! (we've made customisable invites for you to print out!)
- Clean your BBQ
- Make sure you have enough Gas or wood for your event

Many hands make light work! Have a crew of people who can help and support you!

EQUIPMENT:

Here are some ideas of what you might need:

- BBQ
- Gas Bottle
- Tongs
- Oil
- Apron
- Water source
- Sunscreen
- Hat
- Sauce and serviettes
- Plates and cups

If this is your first NDA BBQ keep it simple - sausages or soysages in bread means you don't need plates!

IT'S AS EASY AS 1,2,3:

1. Get a BBQ
2. Chuck some food on it!
3. Share it with your neighbours
